WAS A STUBBORN BLAZE

It Took the Laddies Half an Hour to Put It Out.

NO NEED FOR THE ENGINE

The Pressure Was Good and There Was No Apparent Decrease After Four Streams Had Been Attached—The East Liverpool Pottery Is Damaged $10,000.

The first fire of importance in several months caused loss to the plant of the East Liverpool Pottery company this morning.

The boss kilnman had gone to breakfast this morning leaving the kilns in charge of his subordinate. About 6 o'clock he noticed that the dry wood of the kiln shed had become so hot from the kilns that a small blaze was started near the roof. Not realizing that there was a key in the office, and being confused with excitement, he ran toward Vodyre's, and some one there seeing the flames turned in an alarm. The delay, however, was so great that the fire had a good start before the department reached the scene. The flames spread rapidly, and the roof of the shed was soon in a blaze, with the fire driving toward the wareroom. Two streams were soon playing on the building, and the wagon was sent back to the station for more hose. It came before the crowd realized that it was gone, and two additional lines of hose were laid. The fire was the first opportunity to test the new system, and there was enough pressure. The buildings being low there was no necessity for great force, and Chief Adam determined to give the new pressure a thorough trial. After the first stream was started, the second failed to reduce the pressure, and the third and fourth were attached with no visible effect upon the supply of water. At one place a hoseman had the stream directed against a window, but the panes were small and he could not accomplish the end.

"Do you want that window broke?" shouted an urchin nearby.

"Yes," came from the fireman. "Then watch 'er go," screamed the youngster as he threw a boulder as big as his fist at the glass. It was shattered in a thousand pieces, and the water went streaming into the building.

When the firemen got well started the flames had secured so firm a hold upon the interior of the shed that it meant extreme danger for any man to take a hose in the building. Some of the spectators sharply criticized the work of the department, but Chief Adam defends the action by saying that the men are perfectly willing to take every reasonable risk, but it is a dangerous thing for them to plunge into the seething flame and smoke of a place such as it soon proved to be. It required half an hour to subdue the fire, and a great crowd had gathered before this was accomplished. Some members of the department were late in reaching the fire, but all were there in time to aid in the work, and do their best. The engine was not brought from the station because there was ample pressure without it, and the limits of the fire were soon narrowed down to a small space. Before the water had started to perform its task the fire had spread to the glost warehouse, and did some damage there. The interior of that part of the pottery visited by fire was a mass of ruins when the flames were put out. Some ware was broken in the warehouse, but the damage from that source will not be great. A force of men were at once put to work cleaning up the debris, and all other departments of the pottery were placed in operation. The damage amounts to almost $10,000, fully covered with insurance. In a few days the plant will be in operation as before.

THE MOVEMENT SPREADING.

Good Citizenship League Will Have a Turn.

The movement to shut off all business in the city on Sunday promises to assume more powerful proportions than was at first supposed and the Good Citizenship league will enter the battle. The committee from the Young People's societies will call on Mayor Gilbert tonight, and the league will hold a meeting at the First United Presbyterian church tomorrow evening. All people interested in the movement are invited to attend, and show that they will help. This greatly increases the force of the crusade.

MRS. BUNTING DEAD.

An Aged Wellsville Lady Passed Away Saturday Evening.

Mrs. Bunting, the aged widow of the late Samuel Bunting, died at her home in Wellsville a few minutes before 7 o'clock on Saturday evening. She had been ill only 10 days, but the weight of 73 years could not endure the strain, and death came after a brave struggle. Funeral services will be conducted on Tuesday at 2 o'clock, with interment in Spring Hill cemetery.

Four sons and five daughters, Mrs. Fisher, of Fifth street, being one, all married with the exception of two, survive Mrs. Bunting, and all the absent ones will be present at the funeral. Mr. and Mrs. James Baker and children, of Oil City, arrived last night, and Miss Helen Fisher came from Niagara Falls, where she was spending her vacation. Mrs. Robert Bunting and daughter have also come from Cleveland. Deceased was possessed of a lovely disposition, and was the idol of her children.

SOME SPORTING.

Trappe Can Ride at the Lisbon Races.

Trappe, the wheelman, has received word from President Gideon, of the racing board, allowing him to ride at the Lisbon races. The Liverpool team accompanied by many admirers will be there.

Two road races will take place this week both starting at Smith's Ferry. The contestants in the race for Wednesday evening are Walter and Harry Wagner, Dell Tarr, James Fox and John McCallister. One other is set for Thursday evening, and the starters are Fritz Ferre, Will Graham, Newton Hutchison and Russel Heddleson.

The Shamrocks and the Y. M. C. A. boys are playing ball on the West End ball grounds to-day. There is a large attendance, and the sport is good.

Many wheelmen from the city rode to Hollow Rock yesterday and made phenomenal time in coming home. They were stretched along the entire route, and the contest was really a road race.

A number of wheelmen have entered the Lisbon races, and will be in at the finish of more than one contest. York will be the scratch man in the road race.

THE MEN WILL WIN.

So Think President Hughes Regarding the Wheeling Strike.

The sanitary potters who struck at Wheeling last week are still out and so far as can be learned the plant is entirely idle and no new men have appeared on the scene.

From what President Hughes says it is hardly possible that there will be any new men, either. Mr. Hughes said to a News Review man that the striking potters could not but win. The principal reason for this is that every sanitary man in the country outside of Wheeling has steady employment so the Wheeling plant can get no men. Even if there were many such potters idle in other cities they could not be secured as the sanitary union embraces nearly all of them.

NOT READY.

Pittsburg Will Not Work For the Improvement of the River.

The word has been sent out from Pittsburg, and with every show of authority, that the coal men of that section will have little to do with the movement to have the Ohio slack-watered, and only a few men will attend the meeting in Cincinnati in October. They are compelled each year to pay many thousands of dollars into the treasury of the company who own the locks on the Monongahela, and their efforts are now centered upon having the stream made free. Until this is done they will not work hard in the cause of the Ohio. Down the river, however, the business men are working, Louisville and Cincinnati being especially interested.

GRASS GROWS

In the River Where It Has Not Been Seen For Years.

The low water in the Ohio has brought about a condition which causes old river men to open their eyes in wonder, and ask each other what will happen next. From a point opposite the pumping station to the island grass has been growing for several weeks, and is now so thick and long that a skiff can rest upon its matted lengths. The water has been low in other years, so much lower as to make contrast possible, but people who have lived here for over 25 years have never seen grass in the channel before.

Obeys the Law.

Complaint is made that wheelmen do not observe the ordinance relating to bells, and that many never think of sounding an alarm when they approach a crossing. When approached on the subject a group of riders said that was true, but they observed it much better than do the people who own horses and drive fast.

FOUR FULL OF FIGHT

Fined a Few Fines For Their Foolish Fun.

A QUARTET IN POLICE COURT

A Big Crowd in the Diamond Caused Some Commotion—Two Candidates For the Workhouse Still Linger Behind the Iron Bars.

The police had their time well employed on Saturday evening looking after drunks, and Mayor Gilbert had a nice array of figures this morning.

A man bearing the name of Ed Owen was drunk in the Diamond on Saturday night, and created a great row. He would not go peacefully when Officer Whan laid his hand upon him, but decided that discretion was the better part to play when the officer's fingers tightened their grasp, and Officer Earl put in his appearance. There was a great crowd around them and urged the man not to accompany the police, but he changed his mind and was taken to jail. Mayor Gilbert has some strong opinions on this subject, and hinted strongly today that the next time a crowd gathers about the police, interfering with them doing their sworn duty, some one may be arrested. Owen got $11.75 for his fun, and was released.

J. W. Patterson who was captured on Saturday afternoon when very drunk arranged for the payment of the fine of $6.75, and was allowed to go.

Pat Nolan, an old offender who has made Smoky Row ring with drunken shouts on more than one occasion, was drunk on Saturday night. He was annoying people so that the patrol was called, and he got a ride. The mayor looked fierce when he told him today that it would be $9.00 or 60 days among the blood hounds in Canton. Pat didn't have the price of freedom in his pocket, and is still in jail.

John Arb, another West Ender, was in a similar condition. He could not decide for himself whether he wanted to go to jail or continue to enjoy the wild freedom that had marked his evening's pleasure, but that question was speedily settled by the police, and he occupied a downy couch at city hall for the remainder of the night. The mayor placed him in the same class with Nolan, and told him he must have the money tomorrow or he would get a ride to Canton.

Nolan gave an order on the D. E. McNicol pottery for his fine and Patterson drew on his wages at the Thompson pottery to rescue his freedom.

A BIG HOTEL

Will Be Erected Near Pughtown During the Fall.

At Pughtown there is a mineral spring which possesses valuable medicinal properties and has for years been known to the people of that section. Recently it came to the knowledge of Doctor Mercer and Doctor Stone, two physicians of New Cumberland, and they had the water analyzed. The report was so favorable that they are now organizing a company with a capital stock of $50,000 to build a fine hotel at the place and conduct a sanitarium. The place is beautifully situated among the hills of Hancock county, and when backed by sufficient capital will be a paying investment. The hotel will be a modern structure as near fire proof as it can be built.

AN HONORED VISITOR

To Be Entertained by the Rechabites This Evening.

L. F. Snigly, high visitor and lecturer of the Rechabites, will address an open meeting for the order this evening. The gentleman lives in Zanesville, but has been in Lonaconing, Md., where he attended the national meeting of the order. The Rechabites of this city are jubilant because he brings them word that the order has increased in membership about 30 per cent during the year.

HERSHEY WILL STAY

If the Sweeper Is Not Released He Will Replevin It.

Agent Hershey is in town again today, and this time he is angry clear through. He will wait patiently for word from the company today, and if it does not come he will replevin the sweeper tomorrow. He cannot imagine the reason the company can have for their action, but says the city will get the sweeper.

SOME HOPE.

Faith in the Second Avenue Tracton Scheme.

"I am glad the News Review reproduced that article on the Second avenue electric line scheme," remarked a business man to a reporter, "for I believe those people are going to do something. They own the line to Coropolis, and that is a good beginning. They have plenty of money if they want to go into the business any deeper than they are now, and they have the men to make money out of it if they start. Mark my prediction that the first railroad this place will have is that electric line."

THREATENED SUICIDE.

An East End Man Caused a Stir.

The East End was roused yesterday by David Smith, who had been quarreling with his wife and making the air anything but the pure and peaceful atmosphere of the Sabbath day. At length Mrs. Smith could endure the war no longer, and she became the attacking party. When David saw the force arrayed against him he ran from the house into the street declaring that he would drown himself. A crowd heard the word, and waited for him to execute the threat but he reconsidered the matter, and after wondering about for a time returned home, and all was well.

THE LINE OF MARCH.

How the Unions Will March on Labor Day.

W. V. Blake, chief marshal of the Labor Day parade, and his aides have decided on the line of march as follows:

The parade will form at 8 o'clock on Fourth street, right resting on Market. Fourth to Broadway, to East Market, to Sixth, to Franklin, to Fifth, to Market, to Second, to Broadway, to Third, to Washington, to Fifth, to Market, to the Diamond.

The route covers a long course, and gives ample opportunity for the crowds to see the marchers.

Home From Europe.

A Pittsburg paper contains the following:

"T. C. Forster and H. E. McNicol, two of East Liverpool's prominent business men, returned from an extended European trip last Saturday. They passed through Pittsburg on their way home yesterday, and stated that the business prospects in England are getting much brighter. They had an enjoyable tour through England, Ireland and Scotland."

The gentlemen arrived home on Saturday night, and are now telling their friends some of the many things they saw.

A LITTLE STRIKE.

The Printers at the Chelsea Went Out.

The printers at the Chelsea pottery in Cumberland on Saturday decided that they wanted to work by the piece instead of by the week, and there was a small strike, four of them taking part. The arrangement was speedily made, and the matter is being settled today. There are four printers there, one from Trenton, another from Cincinnati, a Wheeling man and a Liverpool printer. As the story goes here, the Liverpool man was the cause of the change to piece work.

A METHODIST MOVE.

All the Presiding Elders in Ohio Want a Crusade.

The presiding elders of the Methodist Episcopal church in Ohio are preparing to make a united effort against whiskey in the state during the last five years of the century, and have issued a circular letter calling on the ministers and congregations to help them. Doctor Stewart, of this district, is among the other signers of the paper. It has raised the question if the church is about to enter politics.

SETTLING TONIGHT.

An Important Meeting of the Board Will be Held.

Architect Owsley is here today from Youngstown, and this afternoon will inspect the finishing touches of the new school building. The whole matter will be laid before the board this evening, and it is thought that it will be cleared up. A force of workmen are today preparing the pole for the flag.

Obedient the Order.

The order to lay new sidewalks is being generally obeyed and large quantities of paving brick are distributed over the city. A stonemason said that he cannot remember when better pavements were laid in Liverpool than are now being put down.

Died With Cancer.

Dr. Jean A. Sloan and Dr. O. D. Shay this morning conducted a post mortem examination of the remains of Mrs. John Jobbing, at the Beark residence, Thompson Hill. They removed a cancer and decided it was the cause of her death.

SHE LIVES IN A DIVE

A Liverpool Girl in a Steubenville Resort.

SHE RAN AWAY FROM HOME

The Mayor Notified This Morning That a Vile Hole Down the River Contains the Girl—She Is Not Over 15 Years of Age. Will Be Recovered.

Mayor Gilbert this morning received from Steubenville a postal card that tells a sad story.

The writer says that a girl from Liverpool not over 15 years of age is living in a dive in that place, and her surroundings were the vilest. He knew that she was missing from home and that her parents had been promised that they would be notified at the right time, and he had taken that means of doing it. The mayor will at once let the girl's friends know of her whereabouts, and it is thought that she will be returned to her home here in due time. The name is not given out, but the story agrees with a tale circulated last week which had for its central figure a young girl residing in the upper part of town. She went to Steubenville at the solicitation of a young man from that place, and immediately began life at the dive in question. If the stories told upon the streets are true she is not the first who has gone from Liverpool to that place.

Deputy Moffatt in Town.

Deputy Sheriff Moffatt was in the city this afternoon with a wagon load of subpoenas and warrants, and the alleys were filled with fleeing people. Mr. Moffatt says there is nothing new in the Barcus case, no new developments in the Conkle murder mystery, and all is quiet at the Washingtonville mines and when that is said it covers everything worthy of mention in Lisbon during the past six months.

The Funeral of George West.

The remains of the late George West, who died on Saturday at Mt. Vernon, will be brought here tomorrow morning and taken to the residence of Henry Deidrick on Fifth street. At 2:30 in the afternoon, funeral services will be conducted by Doctor Taggart, at the First U. P. church, and the interment will be in Riverview cemetery.

Cut the Weeds.

East End people register a kick against the street railway company because weeds are allowed to grow between the rails where the track crosses through the principal streets of the village. So high are the weeds that the cars scrape them, and they are covered with oil and grease. The people think the weeds should be cut down.

Meeting With Success.

The committee from the patriotic organizations having in charge the collection of money for the flag raising at the school building are meeting with success, and hope by the end of this week to have the amount collected.

Will Play Thursday.

The East End Gyms have been after a game with the original East End club for some time and the latter has decided to accommodate them. The two teams will accordingly do battle on the West End grounds on Thursday afternoon next.

Stricken With Paralysis.

The wife of William Murphy residing on the Lisbon road was stricken with paralysis on Saturday, and is in a precarious condition. Mr. Murphy is well known here having been connected with the light plant for several years.

All Will Attend.

The judicial convention at Youngstown this week is attracting attention all over the district, but no estimate as to the relative strength of the various candidates is given out. All the Liverpool delegates will attend.

Married Yesterday.

William C. Wright and Miss Jennie Gray, of Wellsville, were married in this city yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by Squire Rose at his residence.

Started Today.

The plant of the Specialty Glass company was placed in operation today, a large number of men who have been idle for several months being given employment.

Deidrick Isn't Dead.

It was reported about town this morning that Henry Deidrick, assistant patrolman, had been killed at the East Liverpool pottery fire. Henry says it is not true.

AN HONORED VISITOR

To Be Entertained by the Rechabites This Evening.

L. F. Snigly, high visitor and lecturer of the Rechabites, will address an open meeting for the order this evening. The gentleman lives in Zanesville, but has been in Lonaconing, Md., where he attended the national meeting of the order. The Rechabites of this city are jubilant because he brings them word that the order has increased in membership about 30 per cent during the year.

HERSHEY WILL STAY

If the Sweeper Is Not Released He Will Replevin It.

Agent Hershey is in town again today, and this time he is angry clear through. He will wait patiently for word from the company today, and if it does not come he will replevin the sweeper tomorrow. He cannot imagine the reason the company can have for their action, but says the city will get the sweeper.

SOME HOPE.

Faith in the Second Avenue Traction Scheme.

"I am glad the NEWS REVIEW reproduced that article on the Second avenue electric line scheme," remarked

a business man to a reporter, "for I believe those people are going to do something. They owe the line to Coraopolis, and that is a good beginning. They have plenty of money if they want to go into the business any deeper than they are now, and they have the men to make money out of it if they start. Mark my prediction that the first railroad this place will have is that electric line."

THREATENED SUICIDE.

An East End Man Caused a Stir.

The East End was roused yesterday by David Smith, who had been quarreling with his wife and making the air anything but the pure and peaceful atmosphere of the Sabbath day. At length Mrs. Smith could endure the war no longer, and she became the attacking party. When David saw the force arrayed against him he ran from the house into the street, declaring that he would drown himself. A crowd heard the word, and waited for him to execute the threat but he reconsidered the matter, and after wondering about for a time returned home, and all was well.

THE LINE OF MARCH.

How the Unions Will March on Labor Day.

W. V. Blake, chief marshal of the Labor Day parade, and his aides have decided on the line of march as follows:

The parade will form at 8 o'clock on Fourth street, right resting on Market. Fourth to Broadway, to East Market, to Sixth, to Franklin, to Fifth, to Market, to Second, to Broadway, to Third, to Washington, to Fifth, to Market, to the Diamond.

The route covers a long course, and gives ample opportunity for the crowds to see the marchers.

Home From Europe.

A Pittsburg paper contains the following:

"T. C. Forster and H. E. McNicol, two of East Liverpool's prominent business men, returned from an extended European trip last Saturday. They passed through Pittsburg on their way home yesterday, and stated that the business prospects in England are getting much brighter. They had an enjoyable tour through England, Ireland and Scotland."

The gentlemen arrived home on Saturday night, and are now telling their friends some of the many things they saw.

A LITTLE STRIKE.

The Printers at the Chelsea Went Out.

The printers at the Chelsea pottery in Cumberland on Saturday decided that they wanted to work by the piece instead of by the week, and there was a small strike, four of them taking part. The arrangement was speedily made, and the matter is being settled today. There are four printers there, one from Trenton, another from Cincinnati, a Wheeling man and a Liverpool printer. As the story goes here, the Liverpool man was the cause of the change to piece work.

A METHODIST MOVE.

All the Presiding Elders in Ohio Want a Crusade.

The presiding elders of the Methodist Episcopal church in Ohio are preparing to make a united effort against whisky in the state during the last five years of the century, and have issued a circular letter calling on the ministers and congregations to help them. Doctor Stewart, of this district, is among the other signers of the paper. It has raised the question if the church is about to enter politics.

SETTLING TONIGHT.

An Important Meeting of the Board Will be Held.

Architect Owsley is here today from Youngstown, and this afternoon will inspect the finishing touches of the new school building. The whole matter will be laid before the board this evening, and it is thought that it will be cleared up. A force of workmen are today preparing the pole for the flag.

Obedient the Order.

The order to lay new sidewalks is being generally obeyed and large quantities of paving brick are distributed over the city. A stonemason said that he cannot remember when better pavements were laid in Liverpool than are now being put down.

Died With Cancer.

Dr. Jean A. Sloan and Dr. O. D. Shay this morning conducted a post mortem examination of the remains of Mrs. John Jobbing, at the Reark residence, Thompson Hill. They removed a cancer and decided it was the cause of her death.

SHE LIVES IN A DIVE

A Liverpool Girl in a Steubenville Resort.

SHE RAN AWAY FROM HOME

The Mayor Notified This Morning That a Vile Hole Down the River Contains the Girl—She Is Not Over 15 Years of Age. Will Be Recovered.

Mayor Gilbert this morning received from Steubenville a postal card that tells a sad story.

The writer says that a girl from Liverpool not over 15 years of age is living in a dive in that place, and her surroundings were the vilest. He knew that she was missing from home and that her parents had been promised that they would be notified at the right time, and he had taken that means of doing it. The mayor will at once let the girl's friends know of her whereabouts, and it is thought that she will be returned to her home here in due time. The name is not given out, but the story agrees with a tale circulated last week which had for its central figure a young girl residing in the upper part of town. She went to Steubenville at the solicitation of a young man from that place, and immediately began life at the dive in question. If the stories told upon the streets are true she is not the first who has gone from Liverpool to that place.

Deputy Sheriff Moffatt In Town.

Deputy Sheriff Moffatt was in the city this afternoon with a wagon load of subpoenas and warrants, and the alleys were filled with fleeing people. Mr. Moffatt says there is nothing new in the Barcus case, no new developments in the Conkle murder mystery, and all is quiet at the Washingtonville mines and when that is said it covers everything worthy of mention in Lisbon during the past six months.

The Funeral of George West.

The remains of the late George West, who died on Saturday at Mt. Vernon, will be brought here tomorrow morning and taken to the residence of Henry Deidrick on Fifth street. At 2:30 in the afternoon, funeral services will be conducted by Doctor Taggart, at the First U. P. church, and the interment will be in Riverview cemetery.

Cut the Weeds.

East End people register a kick against the street railway company because weeds are allowed to grow between the rails where the track crosses through the principal streets of the village. So high are the weeds that the cars scrape them, and they are covered with oil and grease. The people think the weeds should be cut down.

Meeting With Success.

The committee from the patriotic organizations having in charge the collection of money for the flag raising at the school building are meeting with success, and hope by the end of this week to have the amount collected.

Will Play Thursday.

The East End Gyms have been after a game with the original East End club for some time and the latter has decided to accommodate them. The two teams will accordingly do battle on the West End grounds on Thursday afternoon next.

Stricken With Paralysis.

The wife of William Murphy residing on the Lisbon road was stricken with paralysis on Saturday, and is in a precarious condition. Mr. Murphy is well known here having been connected with the light plant for several years.

All Will Attend.

The judicial convention at Youngstown this week is attracting attention all over the district, but no estimate as to the relative strength of the various candidates is given out. All the Liverpool delegates will attend.

Married Yesterday.

William C. Wright and Miss Jennie Gray, of Wellsville, were married in this city yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by Squire Rose at his residence.

Started Today.

The plant of the Specialty Glass company was placed in operation today, a large number of men who have been idle for several months being given employment.

Deidrick Isn't Dead.

It was reported about town this morning that Henry Deidrick, assistant patrolman, had been killed at the East Liverpool pottery fire. Henry says it is not true.

A BOODLE CAMPAIGN.

A Washington dispatch thus gives a few facts which outline clearly the brand of campaign to be conducted by the Brice forces in this state:

"It is stated by those federal officeholders who have returned from the Springfield convention that there will be two campaign organizations of the Democratic party in Ohio this year. One will be the usual executive committee, which will have charge of the state campaign and will probably be presided over by Senator Joe McKen of Hamilton, and the other will be a very exclusive organization, which will see to the work in the legislative fight and look after the distribution of boodle. This latter organization will be in charge of Barney Layton, Senator Brice's trusted lieutenant. From an authoritative source comes information that before the campaign closes Consul James E. Neal will be home from Liverpool on a vacation, and the Democratic managers will have the advantage of his advice and assistance. Postmaster General Wilson expects to make speeches in Ohio during the campaign, and it is said Senator Hill had proffered his services to Campbell and Brice. The Ohio association here composed of Democratic clerks in the various departments has called a meeting for Monday evening next, at which time they will go to work to raise money and take other action concerning the Ohio campaign."

A "PEEPING TOM."

A Mysterious Individual Who Annoys People in Morristown.

MORRISTOWN, N. J., Aug. 26.—A veritable "Tom the Peeper" is causing consternation among the residents of this city. The fellow prowls around dwellings at night and alarms the inmates by peeping through windows. In some instances the unknown man has crawled through open windows, but when discovered makes a hasty exit.

Several women have been badly frightened by the "peeper," who reported their unpleasant experience to Police Officer Morrison, who, assisted by several young men, made a search of the entire neighborhood, but failed to capture the miscreant. Persons who have been confronted by the man describe him as being of medium height. He wears a soft slouch hat and goes about barefooted. His face is covered with a grizzled growth of beard.

Forest Fire Again Raging.

CAPE MAY, Aug. 26.—The forest fire have broken out again near this place. Gangs of men from the West Jersey and South Jersey railroads have been steadily fighting the fires in the neighborhood of Goshen. Fifty acres of land have been burned away. A heavy wind fanned the flames at night, but the wind has died and the farmers hope to get the fire under control.

FOUGHT THE SPANISH.

Cubans Landed Right Under the Guns of a War Vessel.

THEY BATTLED FOR TWO DAYS.

Large Forces Engaged on Both Sides and Much Firing Heard—The European Soldiers Say They Are Being Sacrificed. More Cuban Recruits.

New York, Aug. 26.—Reports of a battle at Mata, Cuba, are brought by the steamship Ely, which left Baracoa last Sunday. Mata is a tiny seaport about five miles from Baracoa and near Yumari. Those on board saw some of the fight. Early Saturday morning, Aug. 17, several small boats were seen outside the harbor. A Spanish gunboat lay under the headland, while in the distance could be seen the disappearing sails of a schooner. It looked as though the men in the boats had been dropped by the schooner right under the guns of the man-of-war. There had been a thick fog, and when it suddenly lifted with the rising of the sun the boats could be plainly observed. The men in them probably had not suspected that a gunboat was near.

They were pulling hard for the shore when a white puff of smoke rolled from the bows of the warship and the boom of a cannon echoed from the hills. Shot after shot flew from the ports of the gunboat, but the firing did not seem to affect the men in the boats otherwise than to make them row faster. Then four boats were lowered from the Spanish man-of-war and started in pursuit. The gunboat could not enter the harbor because of shallow water and rocks.

On the high ground could be seen masses of insurgents watching the chase with the greatest interest. When the small boats from the gunboat came within range white puffs of smoke came from the rebel ranks, and the water about the little craft was dotted with spray from the bullets. The gunboat stopped firing when her own boats got in range, and finally all of the boats disappeared behind the headland. A rattling fire from the shore could be heard, and now and then the boom of a cannon gave evidence that the rebels or the boats from the warship had large guns.

The gunboat ran in towards shore and kept up a rapid firing for some time. The cannonading was heard in Baracoa, and as the Ely neared that port another gunboat was seen rapidly steaming in the direction of the combat. The Ely continued her loading at Baracoa. In the city could be seen bodies of soldiers under arms ready to take the field. In the shelter of a large shed were encamped about 800 soldiers. They were drawn up in ranks and ammunition was being served out. Three hundred men boarded a small Spanish fruit steamer and she steamed away toward Mata. Other soldiers marched in that direction overland.

It evidently was the intention of the Spanish commander to attack the rebels by water and by land in the rear. The reports of cannon and small arms could be heard all day Saturday and Sunday. The battle was evidently stubbornly fought with many troops on both sides. The insurgents doubtless had been waiting on the shore to protect the landing of an expedition. The boats probably had been at work all night landing men and munitions from the schooner. The rebels apparently were well supplied with arms and ammunition.

MORE RECRUITS FOR CUBA.

Nearly a Hundred Men Enlist in Island Patriotic Cause.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 26.—Nearly 100 men, most of whom are laborers, enrolled themselves at the headquarters of the Cuban revolution recruiting station, which organized here.

Leaders of the movement show considerable enthusiasm over the project. It was given a setback, however, when General Joe Shelby, United States marshal for this district, made the declaration that he would arrest any and every man who is connected with the scheme. It is General Shelby's son, Orville, himself deputy, who is at the head of the movement.

The Terrible Typhoon.

PORTLAND, Or., Aug. 26.—The Altmore, of the Portland-China line of steamers, has arrived here. Further particulars are brought by Captain Watson concerning the terrible typhoon on July 28 and 29. Nearly every ship in the harbor of Moji was dragged from its fastenings and a great amount of damage was done along the coast. Nearly 100 trading junks were driven ashore and were wrecked and there was great loss of life. Captain Watson says it was one of the worst storms ever experienced in a lifetime on the China seas.

Spaulding Goes to Washington.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26.—Colonel Z. S. Spaulding, who recently received a franchise from the Hawaiian government to lay cable from Honolulu to this city, has gone to Washington to secure the co-operation of this government in the undertaking. Colonel Spaulding will call upon the cabinet officers with a view to clearing the way for a presentation of his plans and demands to congress in December next. In order to float successfully the enterprise he calculates that nearly $4,000,000 will be required.

A Millionaire's Branch of Promise Case.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—George Law, the street railroad president and a well known millionaire, is defendant in a suit for $100,000 for breach of promise to marry, brought by Miss Josephine Mack. Miss Mack is 21 years old, a lecturer and literary woman, and has studied music in Paris. Colonel Robert G. Ingersoll is her attorney. Mr. Law married Miss Olga Smith in September, 1894, after the alleged promise to marry Miss Mack.

To Test Machine Guns.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—A general test and competition between machine guns has been set to begin Monday, the 16th of September, at Indian Head. It is expected that six machine arms will enter this contest.

EXCURSION BOAT COLLIDES.

Lake Vessels Come Together and Seven Persons Hurt.

TOLEDO, Aug. 26.—The steamer City of Toledo, returning from Put-in-Bay with some 800 excursionists aboard, collided with the schooner Madeline Downing, when just opposite Presque Isle. The Toledo's bulwarks and rigging were torn away and the schooner lost her bowsprit and fore rigging.

As soon as the collision occurred a panic reigned on the boat, the men acting like insane persons, the most of them taking three or four life preservers and refusing to give them up. The officers used every endeavor to quiet the passengers, assuring them that there was no danger of the boat going down, and after a few minutes succeeded in restoring order. The schooner was pulled away from the wreck and the debris cleared away.

It was found that seven persons had been seriously injured, while at least 10 received cuts and bruises. About 500 of the passengers were excursionists from Ada, O., and the following sustained severe injuries:

Mrs. John Sanderson, Ada, O., arms broken and injured internally, will die; Miss Annie Zimmerman, student, Ada, O., was covered in the debris and only her head was visible, her chest is crushed and four ribs broken, she cannot live; Miss Jessie Jackson, student, Ada, O., fatally injured about the head and chest; Miss Grace Garwood, Ada, O., chest crushed and internally injured, will die; Miss Nellie Garwood, sister of Grace, received about the same injuries and cannot live; Mrs. John E. Miller, Bucyrus, O., crushed about the shoulders and chest, is in a critical condition; James Farley, Bucyrus, O., injured about the lower limbs and arm broken.

The force of the collision disabled the paddlewheel of the steamer, and she was towed into the dock, where her passengers were landed and the injured ones taken to the hospital, with the exception of Mrs. Miller and Miss Nellie Garwood, who were placed aboard a waiting train and sent to their homes. The cabins and deck of the steamer give an idea of the force of the blow. The planking was literally ground to powder and the iron work wrenched and twisted out of all shape. The damage to the boat will reach at least $3,000. The only damage done to the schooner was the carrying away of her jib-boom and some of her canvas.

A GIANT OAK.

Monstrous Logs Sawed From a Tree in Adams County.

WINCHESTER, O., Aug. 26.—The largest log ever seen in this place has been delivered to the Buckeye Lumber company. The log, which is oak, measured 60 inches at the butt and is 12 feet in length and contains 1,728 feet, scale measure.

Two other logs were taken from the same tree, the second having 1,519 and the third 1,387 feet, scale measure. The tree grew on the McGovern farm, south of here, and contained three other 12-foot logs, which were unfit for use.

Three People Perish in a Hotel Fire.

TOLEDO, Aug. 26.—Three men were burned to death in the Air Line hotel at Air Line Junction, about four miles from this city. The hotel took fire about midnight, and by the time the fire engines from this city reached the place the flames were beyond control. Most of the people in the house escaped in their night clothes. Timothy McCarthy of Hillside, Mich., and two men whose names are unknown perished. McCarthy was taken from the building alive, but died within a few moments thereafter. The bodies of the other victims have not been recovered. The loss on the hotel and several small buildings to which the flames communicated is $20,000.

Shot Through the Breast.

DAYTON, O., Aug. 26.—Mounted Officers J. A. Koehler and John O'Brien were called upon to arrest William Woodard for beating his wife. Woodard was evidently expecting a visit and at once opened fire upon them. The first shot struck Officer Koehler in the right breast. The second shot knocked a button off Officer O'Brien's coat. A race of over a mile ensued, and, after a desperate hand-to-hand encounter, the man was arrested. Hopes are entertained for Koehler's recovery.

Apoplexy or Murder.

UPPER SANDUSKY, O., Aug. 26.—Officer Simonis, night policeman in this city, was found lying unconscious in the rear of the molding department of the Comins Manufacturing company. Just as he was being helped in the house he spoke and said that he had started after some one down the alley. This is all he said and expired. The general opinion is that he was after some one and being overpowered, was snatched. He was 33 years old and on the force seven years. He leaves a widow.

SMALL OHIO HAPPENINGS.

Marion is to have a new business college. Fred Masters, a Columbus plumber, fell from an electric car and may die.

John Wells was thrown from a horse at West Liberty and received fatal injuries.

The Polish National Alliance will hold its biennial convention in Cleveland next month.

Mrs. Elizabeth Webster, at Burgoon, tried to save a small amount of cash and some valuable notes in her burning house and was fatally burned.

C. F. Lust of Marion, while removing lumber, found several valuable gold and silver watches that had been hidden under the lumber that was removed.

The Saints of God, a new religious denomination, will conduct a campmeeting for a month near Cockran, Marion county, on the farm of one of the saints.

An official surveyor in the interest of the proposed ship canal between Lake Erie and the Ohio river, left Upper Sandusky to follow the course of the Sandusky river north.

John Owens, proprietor of the town quarry, and the owner of a large stone quarry and numerous lime kilns, proposes to drive the salient out of his town by discharging his men who patronize it.

James Russell, a Big Four brakeman between Galien and Bellefontaine, fainted at Marion at the sight of blood from a bleeding finger that was bruised and was so overcome with heat that he was revived with difficulty.

Detectives who have been in Tiffin securing evidence against the proprietors of houses of ill fame who sell liquor in their places in violation of the wine law, have filed petitions against eight parties. The total number of cases is 62, amounting to $21,700. The owners of the properties are mortgaging them as fast as possible.

Positive of Their Man.

GRAND RAPIDS, Aug. 26.—John Smalley, the man who was killed by deputy sheriffs at McHain, Missaukee county, has been positively identified as the man who killed Detective George W. Powers here last Thursday night, and there is but little doubt that he was one of the five who held up the Chicago and West Michigan train near the Kalamazoo river last week.

May Fight in Mexico.

EL PASO, Tex., Aug. 26.—A representative in this city of President Sturart, the Florida Athletic club received from the City of Mexico positive assurance that the Mexican authorities would allow the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight to take place in Juarez, Mex., across the river from El Paso, in case the contest is stopped at Dallas.

A Steamer Goes Down.

MT. VERNON, Ind., Aug. 26.—The steamer Rosedale sank four miles north of Shawneetown after striking a snag. She was loaded with corn. The Rosedale is the property of the Hudnutts of Terre Haute and was valued at $6,000 not including the cargo. No lives lost.

A Bloody Tragedy.

MIDDLESBOROUGH, Ky., Aug. 26.—A bloody encounter occurred at the water works, in which James Lyle literally savored Peter Sullivan to pieces. Lyle escaped but is closely pursued by police and 25 infuriated citizens. If caught Lyle will probably be lynched.

Great Damage by Fire.

LONDON, Aug. 26.—The fire, which broke out at Hanbury's wharf, Black Friars, burned fiercely all Saturday night, destroying the granary and the storage for oil, sugar and combustibles. The damage amounted to $100,000.

A BOODLE CAMPAIGN.

A Washington dispatch thus gives a few facts which outline clearly the brand of campaign to be conducted by the Brice forces in this state:

"It is stated by those federal office-holders who have returned from the Springfield convention that there will be two campaign organizations of the Democratic party in Ohio this year. One will be the usual executive committee, which will have charge of the state campaign and will probably be presided over by Senator Joe McKenham of Hamilton, and the other will be a very exclusive organization, which will see to the work in the legislative fight and look after the distribution of boodle. This latter organization will be in charge of Barney Layton, Senator Brice's trusted lieutenant. From an authoritative source comes information that before the campaign closes Consul James E. Neal will be home from Liverpool on a vacation, and the Democratic managers will have the advantage of his advice and assistance. Postmaster General Wilson expects to make speeches in Ohio during the campaign, and it is said Senator Hill had proffered his services to Campbell and Brice. The Ohio association here composed of Democratic clerks in the various departments has called a meeting for Monday evening next, at which time they will go to work to raise money and take other action concerning the Ohio campaign."

A "PEEPING TOM."

A Mysterious Individual Who Annoys People in Morristown.

MORRISTOWN, N. J., Aug. 26.—A veritable "Tom the Peeper" is causing consternation among the residents of this city. The fellow prowls around dwellings at night and alarms the inmates by peeping through windows. In some instances the unknown man has crawled through open windows, but when discovered makes a hasty exit. Several women have been badly frightened by the "peeper," who reported their unpleasant experience to Police Officer Morrison, who, assisted by several young men, made a search of the entire neighborhood, but failed to capture the miscreant. Persons who have been confronted by the man describe him as being of medium height. He wears a soft slouch hat and goes about barefooted. His face is covered with a grizzled growth of beard.

Forest Fires Again Raging.

CAPE MAY, Aug. 26.—The forest fires have broken out again near this place. Gangs of men from the West Jersey and South Jersey railroads have been steadily fighting the fires in the neighborhood of Goshen. Fifty acres of land have been burned away. A heavy wind fanned the flames all night, but the wind has died out and the farmers hope to get the fire under control.

FOUGHT THE SPANISH.

Cubans Landed Right Under the Guns of a War Vessel.

THEY BATTLED FOR TWO DAYS.

Large Forces Engaged on Both Sides and Much Firing Heard—The European Soldiers Say They Are Being Sacrificed. More Cuban Recruits.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—Reports of a battle at Mata, Cuba, are brought by the steamship Ely, which left Baracoa last Sunday. Mata is a tiny seaport about five miles from Baracoa and near Yumari. Those on board saw some of the fight. Early Saturday morning, Aug. 17, several small boats were seen outside the harbor. A Spanish gunboat lay under the headland, while in the distance could be seen the disappearing sails of a schooner. It looked as though the men in the boats had been dropped by the schooner right under the guns of the man-of-war. There had been a thick fog, and when it suddenly lifted with the rising of the sun the boats could be plainly observed. The men in them probably had not suspected that a gunboat was near.

They were pulling hard for the shore when a white puff of smoke rolled from the bows of the warship and the boom of a cannon echoed from the hills. Shot after shot flew from the ports of the gunboat, but the firing did not seem to affect the men in the boats otherwise than to make them row faster. Then four boats were lowered from the Spanish man-of-war and started in pursuit. The gunboat could not enter the harbor because of shallow water and rocks.

On the high ground could be seen masses of insurgents watching the chase with the greatest interest. When the small boats from the gunboat came within range white puffs of smoke came from the rebel ranks, and the water about the little craft was dotted with spray from the bullets. The gunboat stopped firing when her own boats got in range, and finally all of the boats disappeared behind the headland. A rattling fire from the shore could be heard, and now and then the boom of a cannon gave evidence that the rebels or the boats from the warship had large guns.

The gunboat ran in towards shore and kept up a rapid firing for some time. The cannonading was heard in Baracoa, and as the Ely neared that port another gunboat was seen rapidly steaming in the direction of the combat. The Ely continued her loading at Baracoa. In the city could be seen bodies of soldiers under arms ready to take the field. In the shelter of a large shed were encamped about 800 soldiers. They were drawn up in ranks and ammunition was being served out. Three hundred men boarded a small Spanish fruit steamer and she steamed away toward Mata. Other soldiers marched in that direction overland.

It evidently was the intention of the Spanish commander to attack the rebels by water and by land in the rear. The reports of cannon and small arms could be heard all day Saturday and Sunday. The battle was evidently stubbornly fought with many troops on both sides. The insurgents doubtless had been waiting on the shore to protect the landing of an expedition. The small boats probably had been at work all night landing men and munitions from the schooner. The rebels apparently were well supplied with arms and ammunition.

MORE RECRUITS FOR CUBA.

Nearly a Hundred Men Enlist in Island Patriots' Cause.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 26.—Nearly 100 men, most of whom are laborers, enrolled themselves at the headquarters of the Cuban revolution recruiting station, which organized here.

Leaders of the movement show considerable enthusiasm over the project. It was given a setback, however, when General Joe Shelby, United States marshal for this district, made the declaration that he would arrest any and every man who is connected with the scheme. It is General Shelby's son, Orville, himself deputy, who is at the head of the movement.

The Terrible Typhoon.

PORTLAND, O., Aug. 26.—The Alamo, of the Portland-China line of steamers, has arrived here. Further particulars are brought by Captain Watson concerning the terrible typhoon on July 28 and 29. Nearly every ship in the harbor of Moji was dragged from its fastenings and a great amount of damage was done along the coast. Nearly 100 trading junks were driven ashore and were wrecked and there was great loss of life. Captain Watson says it was one of the worst storms ever experienced in a lifetime on the China seas.

Spaulding Goes to Washington.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26.—Colonel Z. S. Spaulding, who recently received a franchise from the Hawaiian government to lay cable from Honolulu to this city, has gone to Washington to secure the co-operation of this government in the undertaking. Colonel Spaulding will call upon the cabinet officers with a view to clearing the way for a presentation of his plans and demands to congress in December next. In order to float successfully the enterprise he calculates that nearly $4,000,000 will be required.

A Millionaire's Breach of Promise Case.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—George Law, the street railroad president and a well known millionaire, is defendant in a suit for $150,000 for breach of promise to marry, brought by Miss Josephine Mack. Miss Mack is 21 years old, a lecturer and literary woman, and has studied music in Paris. Colonel Robert G. Ingersoll is her attorney. Mr. Law married Miss Olga Smith in September, 1894, after the alleged promise to marry Miss Mack.

To Test Machine Guns.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—A general test and competition between machine guns has been set to begin Monday, the 16th of September, at Indian Head. It is expected that six machine arms will enter this contest.

EXCURSION BOAT COLLIDES.

Lake Vessels Come Together and Seven Persons Hurt.

TOLEDO, Aug. 26.—The steamer City of Toledo, returning from Put-in-Bay with some 800 excursionists aboard, collided with the schooner Madeline Downing, when just opposite Presque Isle. The Toledo's bulwarks and rigging were torn away and the schooner lost her bowsprit and fore rigging.

As soon as the collision occurred a panic reigned on the boat, the men acting like insane persons, the most of them taking three or four life preservers and refusing to give them up. The officers used every endeavor to quiet the passengers, assuring them that there was no danger of the boat going down, and after a few minutes succeeded in restoring order. The schooner was pulled away from the wreck and the debris cleared away.

It was found that seven persons had been seriously injured, while at least 500 of the passengers were excursionists from Ada, O., and the following sustained severe injuries:

Mrs. John Sanderson, Ada, O., arms broken and injured internally, will die; Miss Annie Zimmerman, student, Ada, O., was covered in the debris and only her head was visible, her chest is crushed and four ribs broken, she cannot live; Miss Jessie Jackson, student, Ada, O., fatally injured about the head and chest; Miss Grace Garwood, Ada, O., chest crushed and internally injured, will die; Mrs. Nellie Garwood, student of grace, received about the same injuries and cannot live; Mrs. John E. Miller, Bucyrus, O., crushed about the shoulders and chest, is in a critical condition; James Parley, Bucyrus, O., injured about the lower limbs and arm broken.

The force of the collision disabled the paddlewheel of the steamer, and she was towed into the dock, where her passengers were landed and the injured ones taken to the hospital, with the exception of Mrs. Miller and Miss Nellie Garwood, who were placed aboard a waiting train and sent to their homes.

The cabins and deck of the steamer give an idea of the force of the blow. The planking was literally ground to powder and the iron work wrenched and twisted out of all shape. The damage to the boat will reach at least $3,000. The only damage done to the schooner was the carrying away of her jib-boom and some of her canvas.

A GIANT OAK.

Monstrous Logs Sawed From a Tree in Adams County.

WINCHESTER, O., Aug. 26.—The largest log ever seen in this place has been delivered to the Buckeye Lumber company. The log, which is oak, measured 60 inches at the butt and is 12 feet in length and contains 1,728 feet, scale measure.

Two other logs were taken from the same tree, the second having 1,519 and the third 1,387 feet, scale measure. The tree grew on the McGovney farm, south of here, and contained three other 12-foot logs, which were unfit for use.

Three People Perish in a Hotel Fire.

TOLEDO, Aug. 26.—Three men were burned to death in the Air Line hotel at Air Line Junction, about four miles from this city. The hotel took fire about midnight, and by the time the fire engines from this city reached the place the flames were beyond control. Most of the people in the house escaped in their night clothes. Timothy McCarthy of Hillsdale, Mich., and two men whose names are unknown perished. McCarthy was taken from the building alive, but died within a few moments thereafter. The bodies of the other victims have not been recovered. The loss on the hotel and several small buildings to which the flames communicated is $20,000.

Shot Through the Breast.

DAYTON, O., Aug. 26.—Mounted Officers J. A. Koehler and John O'Brien were called upon to arrest William Woodard for beating his wife. Woodard was evidently expecting a visit and at once opened fire upon them. The first shot struck Officer Koehler in the right breast. The second shot knocked a button off Officer O'Brien's coat. A race of over a mile ensued, and after a desperate hand-to-hand encounter, the man was arrested. Hopes are entertained for Koehler's recovery.

Apoplexy or Murder.

UPPER SANDUSKY, O., Aug. 26.—Officer Simons, night policeman in this city, was found lying unconscious in the rear of the molding department of the Comins Manufacturing company. Just as he was being helped in the house he spoke and said that he had started after some one down the alley. This is all he said and expired. The general opinion is that he was after some one and being overpowered was sandbagged. He was 33 years old and on the force seven years. He leaves a widow.

SMALL OHIO HAPPENINGS.

Marion is to have a new business college. Fred Masters, a Columbus plumber, fell from an electric car and may die.

John Wells was thrown from a horse at West Liberty and received fatal injuries.

The Polish National Alliance will hold its biennial convention in Cleveland next month.

Mrs. Elizabeth Webster, at Burgoon, tried to save a small amount of cash and some valuable notes in her burning house and was fatally burned.

C. F. Lust of Marion, while removing lumber, found several valuable gold and silver watches that had been hidden under the lumber that was removed.

The Saluta of God, a new religious denomination, will conduct a campmeeting for a month near Cochranton, Marion county, on the farm of one of the Saluta.

An official surveyor in the interest of the proposed ship canal between Lake Erie and the Ohio river, left Upper Sandusky to follow the course of the Sandusky river north.

John Owens, proprietor of the town bearing his name, and the owner of a large stone quarry and numerous lime kilns, proposed to drive the saloon out of his town by discharging his men who patronize it.

James Russell, a Big Four brakeman between Gallon and Bellefontaine, fainted at Marion at the sight of blood from a bleeding finger that was bruised and was so overcome with heat that he was revived with difficulty.

Detectives who have been in Tiffin securing evidence against the proprietors of houses of ill fame who sell liquor in their places in violation of the Winn law, have filed petitions against eight parties. The total number of cases is 35, amounting to $21,700. The owners of the properties are warring them as fast as possible.

Positive of Their Man.

GRAND RAPIDS, Aug. 26.—John Smalley, the man who was killed by deputy sheriffs at McBain, Missaukee county, has been positively identified as the man who killed Detective George W. Powers here last Thursday night, and there is but little doubt that he was one of the five who held up the Chicago and West Michigan train near the Kalamazoo river last week.

May Fight in Mexico.

EL PASO, Tex., Aug. 26.—A representative in this city of President Stuart, the Florida Athletic club received from the City of Mexico positive assurance that the Mexican authorities would allow the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight to take place in Juarez, Mex., across the river from El Paso, in case the contest is stopped at Dallas.

A Steamer Goes Down.

MT. VERNON, Ind., Aug. 26.—The steamer Rosedale sank four miles north of Shawneetown, after striking a snag. She was loaded with corn. The Rosedale is the property of the Hudsons of Terre Haute and was valued at $6,000 not including the cargo. No lives lost.

A Bloody Tragedy.

BARBARIC PRACTICES

BULL-FIGHTING THEIR PASTIME.

The Sport Progresses In the Presence of the Sheriff and In the Very Face of the Militia—Men Become Frantic and Women Faint.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Colo., Aug. 26.—Two thousand people paid from $2 to $5 each on Saturday to witness a genuine Spanish bull fight at Gillett, a small camp in this district. One bull was killed and another so terribly hurt that it will die. All the cruelties and barbarities of the most sanguinary bull fight were witnessed by the spectators, who applauded rapturously.

The sport for the day was suddenly ended, however, by the arrest of J. H. Wolfe, the manager, and the two bull-fighters from the City of Mexico. A riot was imminent, as nearly every spectator had a Winchester rifle or a pair of revolvers with him, and as the sheriff was in no way prepared to cope with the assemblage he concluded that discretion was the better part of valor.

A telegram from the governor was received, in which he said he would send a troop of cavalry here at once if the fights were resumed. Manager Wolfe gave bond and was released.

It was just 29 minutes from the time the first bull bounded into the arena until he was carried out dead from the effects of the last sword thrust. The second bull was not in the arena so long as the first and was not killed. He was being tortured by a Mexican woman on horseback when the sheriff interfered and put a stop to the spectacle.

On Sunday another bull was killed in the arena at Gillett in the presence of 6,000 people, and the work was done in the style of Spain and Mexico. The first bull turned into the arena was an exceedingly tame animal, even after the darts were in him. He refused to fight and the multitudes cried for a new animal. Arizona Charley appeared to be equally disgusted and headed the band of cowboys that drove the bull into the arena. The next animal made for his life, but its battle was quickly over. Chireta, the king of the arena in not only Mexico, but in Spain, made two stabs at the animal and then left him practically dead, but the Mexicans who the red cloak teased the creature and made him dart at them. One came within an ace of losing his life, and there was great excitement in consequence, especially among the little children to which the individual he longed. Not a few women fainted.

The militia, however, failed to put in an appearance.

A WIDOW'S SUICIDE.

She Carries Out a Threat to End Her Life.

LONDON, O., Aug. 26.—Mrs. Della Pert, a widow, has committed suicide by shooting herself with a revolver in the right temple at the residence of her brother-in-law, Mr. Tallman, living at Somerford, four miles from this city.

Mrs. Pert had become despondent over the death of her husband a short time ago. Her home was at Jamestown, O., but she had been nursing her sick sister. She remarked to some friends that she would be dead before night. She was 28 years old.

Jail Delivery Frustrated.

DETROIT, Aug. 26.—A wholesale delivery of about all the prisoners confined in one of the wards of the county jail has been frustrated by the accidental discovery of the secret scheme through which the prisoners had hoped to regain their liberty. This was through a tunnel 30 feet long and large enough to easily contain a man in a stooping posture.

Knights Templar Gathering.

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—Local commanders of Knights Templar have been on the alert looking after the welfare and comfort of their fellow knights who have been coming in at intervals. The chief arrival thus far was Grand Master Hugh McCurdy, who with 190 knights and ladies from Detroit Commandery of Detroit reached here shortly after 10 o'clock.

Durrant Has Two Important Witnesses.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Aug. 26.—The attorneys for Theodore Durrant have two witnesses, Marius Burnett and Edward McPherson, by whom they expect to prove that their client was on Market street at the moment when the prosecution insists that the Finnish murderer was mutilating the body of the dead girl in the library of Emanuel church.

To Attend Wounded In Battle.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—Commodore Tryon, chief of the medical bureau of the navy department, has prepared, and Secretary Herbert has approved an order making regulations for the care of the wounded in naval engagements. The new order is to obviate the difficulty of transferring wounded men from the deck to the surgeon's room.

Kipans Tablets: for torpid liver. Kipans Tablets have come to stay.

LARGELY INCREASED REVENUES.

Nicaraguan Government Causes Double Taxes to Be Paid by Some.

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, Aug. 26.—The annual national and municipal taxes on real estate in Nicaragua are now being collected and should largely increase the government revenues. All who neglected to report, in writing over their signatures, before June 1, 1895, to the proper government officials a fair estimate of the value of their property and full statement of net income for the year ending that date, are now having these values estimated by the government officials and are paying the tax rate.

These taxes are one-half of one per cent on net incomes to the municipality and one-half of one per cent to the national government on valuation of the property. The net income from merchandise sales is obtained by deducting the usual expenses for clerk hire and rents and debts for the merchandise due to citizens of Nicaragua resident in this country—foreign indebtedness not allowed.

VICTIMS OF THE DRUG.

Both Were Addicted to Chloral and Perish by Their Own Hands.

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hammon registered at the American House on Monday morning from Des Moines, and as they had not been seen, their room was broken open and both found dead on the bed. The woman was about 30 and the man 39. He left a note saying that both he and his wife were addicted to the chloral habit and that she had died by her own hand on Wednesday. As he was about the corridor Friday her body must have lain in the room 48 hours with him keeping a lonely vigil before he took the fatal dose.

Arrested for Murder.

MEMPHIS, Aug. 26.—Percy Brooks, T. H. Scarborough and a young man named Sullivan have been arrested here on a charge of murdering Cornelia Brayer, a young colored woman, whose body was found in a well at Hernando, Miss. Young Brooks says he and several other boys from Memphis went to Hernando to play ball, that they became involved in a quarrel with the negroes, chased her and that she ran into the well. There is considerable mystery about the case.

May Land Troops.

LONDON, Aug. 26.—A dispatch from Shanghai says that Commander Newell of the United States cruiser Detroit has gone to Ku-Cheng for the purpose of consulting with J. C. Hixon, United States consul at Foo-Chow, in regard to the landing of an armed force for the protection of Hixon and the European members of the commission investigating the recent massacres. The members of the commission are now practically prisoners.

A Village Almost Destroyed.

KINSTON, N. Y., Aug. 26.—A most destructive fire occurred at the village of Rosendale, in this county, by which 17 buildings were burned, and for a time the whole village was threatened with destruction. It quickly spread to the houses on the street and then in all directions, until about every building along the canal was destroyed. The cause of the fire is unknown. The damage is estimated at $75,000.

The Report Discredited.

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 26.—No further news has been received concerning the reported massacre of 15 Hinnock Indians in Diamond Valley by cattlemen. At Ontario, the nearest telegraph office to the scene of the reported trouble, it is believed there is some truth in the rumor, but no further information can be secured until the arrival of the stage.

Looking For Kissing Actors.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—Detectives are looking for William Holt, an actor, and Mabel Eaton, an actress, at the instance of the authorities of Peru, Ind., where Holt's wife is. Mrs. Holt claims that her husband deserted her and her two children and eloped with Miss Eaton. The couple left Toledo for New York several days ago.

Seven Deaths From Cholera.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 26.—Seven deaths from cholera have occurred on board the steamer Baikov, which arrived at Vladivostok on Aug. 6 from Chee-Foo, China, since which time 16 cases and 12 deaths have occurred at Vladivostok itself.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

George Roberts moved here today from Industry.

A party of young East End people were pleasantly entertained at the Whan residence in that section of the city Saturday evening.

Joe Carey, who has been playing ball at Greensburg, Pa., returned Saturday night to be with the Y. M. C. A. team in their game today.

John Weltz, formerly an employee at the Specialty Glass works, is learning the work of Bert Chambers who will soon leave the Adams Express company.

Mrs. Lotta Ralston, of East End, will entertain her friends on Thursday afternoon by a picnic in honor of Miss Nellie Leighton, of Cleveland, who is her guest.

The remains of the late Mrs. John Jobling were this afternoon interred in Spring Grove cemetery, funeral services being held at the residence of Henry Reark.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. John Pollock, East End, twin sons. Jack says he cannot think of giving Grover Cleveland one as his little twin daughters would object.

A babe, one of the twins recently born to Mr. and Mrs. George Haney of Second street, died on Saturday, and the remains were this morning taken to Yellow Creek for burial.

A physician who has grown weary of waiting on people to pay their bills ordered a man from his office on Saturday because he became threatening when the doctor refused to answer his call.

Willard Mercer rowed to Georgetown yesterday in search of a boat that was stolen from him some time ago. He heard that someone had it at Georgetown, but it could not be found.

Some individual, not worthy to be called a man, has been guilty of dastardly tricks in an uptown business block. He will receive the heaviest penalty the law provides if he is caught.

Hollow Rock campmeeting attracted a large number of people from this city yesterday. The attendance from other places was large, the crowd being the greatest, in the opinion of people who have been there for several years, ever seen on the grounds.

About 3,000 people attended the harvest home picnic at Shelton's grove on Saturday, many of them being from this city. The sport was spoiled by the rain, and many wheelmen coming home had a hard time of it. All the politicians were on the ground doing their best work.

Chicken thieves were abroad on Saturday night, and got away with three that were the pride of a Second street family. The owner chanced to know the thieves, and going to the house of the leader yesterday demanded his property. The man gladly paid the price of the birds to prevent arrest.

The river at no time this year has been so low as at present and each day sees the stream become narrower. It is now perfectly dry between the foot of Babbs Island and the Ohio shore and is dry in spots to a point below the water works. Many places considered dangerous a week ago can be forded now with ease and safety.

A couple of local young men were in Wellsville Saturday night and tanked up with bad whiskey until they wanted to fight a commercial man. The latter seeing their condition refused until one of them struck at him and he gave the offender one straight from the shoulder. The other man decided that he did not care for the same dose.

Many persons in the city will remember Reverend Showers, the presiding elder of the Free Methodists, who was in the city for a time when the church was first organized and frequently spoke in the Diamond, and will be grieved to learn that he died at Oil City on Saturday. Typhoid fever was the cause, and he was but 27 years of age. He was an earnest worker, and was greatly beloved by people of the church.

When Doctor Block, a veterinary surgeon, was walking along the river front near the East End yesterday morning he heard a series of groans, and upon investigating found a horse with its head in the water almost dead. The animal had been tied to a log, and winding the rope around its legs had fallen in such a way as to leave its body on the shore, and its head in the water. The animal was released from its position, but it was some time before he could stand. The humane society might investigate the case with profit.

It is related that the Gilbolly company enacted a scene at Toronto that was not on the bills, and caused no end of comment in that quiet village. One of the actors became jealous of his wife, and without giving her an opportunity to defend herself told her on the stage just what he thought about it. At the hotel there was more trouble, and it is believed blows were struck. The next morning he was only prevented from doing her violence by the proprietor of the hotel, and at the station when they departed for this city there was another scene.

SHE FELL IN A FAINT

And the Crowd Promptly Imagined That a Woman

DROPPED DEAD ON THE STREET

Mrs. W. C. Scott, of Allegheny, Was So Scared When It Looked as Though the Horses Would Run Away That She Jumped In the Street, and Was Attacked by Heart Disease.

One railroad train, two frightened horses, and a lady afflicted with heart disease, caused the startling announcement this morning that a woman had dropped dead on Second street.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson drove over from West Virginia this morning to see their friends Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Scott, of Allegheny, on their way home. When they were on Second street near the railroad the horses became frightened at a train and Mrs. Scott jumped to the pavement. She stood erect for a moment, and then fell to the ground. The woman was as white as it is possible for a human being to get, and the report was circulated that she had dropped dead. But it was evident that life was still there, and she was removed to a barber shop nearby where nearly every attention possible was given her. Later she was taken to the Thompson House, and by noon had almost entirely recovered. Mrs. Scott is afflicted with heart disease, and excitement always makes her ill. They took the noon train for home.

BEYOND THE CITY.

Some Peculiarities in the Apple and Corn Crops.

The apple crop this year is phenomenal and hundreds of trees in the valley are bending low with the weight of ripening fruit, while the corn fields are filled with stalks, and the stalks have more than the usual complement of well-developed ears.

A drive from East Liverpool in the valley shows an astonishing condition, and what might have been wealth for the farmers is little less than a burden. They have so many apples that they fear to pack them for future use, as the crop is large in all parts of the country, and it is almost useless to send them to market now, so low is the price. The writer, in a drive toward the Pennsylvania line, saw hundreds of bushels on trees that were bending under the weight. One small branch but little thicker than a lead pencil supported four large, rosy apples, and the tree, a small one, was loaded with several bushels. Not more than half a mile away in another orchard was a tree almost as bare as a pole. The apples had been too heavy for the limbs, and as they developed the branches were broken off, and lay scattered on the ground under the tree. The number of small trees bearing fruit is wonderful, and it seems as though every apple tree had been pressed into service. A glance through an orchard from the road shows thousands upon thousands of apples ripening in the sun, and appearing toothsome enough to tempt the most righteous.

But all the orchards are not this way, for a peculiarity has been observed which cannot be explained and is puzzling the farmers more than a little. Occasionally trees are found without a semblance of fruit, as barren as if there was not an apple within a thousand miles. Occasionally they are seen in the midst of dozens of trees well loaded, and again they appear in whole orchards. They are not confined to one side of the river, but are found distributed over a large section of country extending from a point in Beaver county to beyond this city. Occasionally the barren orchard is on the hill, and the next may be in the valley. Farmers can not explain the cause, and have been talking about it so long they have ceased to give it any more than passing wonder. The crop of this portion of the Ohio valley alone will amount to thousands of barrels, and if there had been a scarcity in other parts of the country these fortunate fruit growers would be rich.

The other crop that is attracting attention is corn. Stalks grow as high as three feet above the fences, and so thick that they form a wilderness of profit for the farmers, and the crop has not spent its growth in fodder. There are ears in every stalk, and some of them contain two. When these first appeared there was a general prophecy that the crop would be made up of bunnies so small as to be beaten in the market by the product of western states, but there has been a change of opinion. The ears are developing with marvelous regularity, and promise to be large and equal to anything ever seen in this section for years. The great growth is not confined alone to the river valleys, but out on the hills ten good fields can be found where one poor one appears. Experts say that the presence of the great crop will more than compensate for what was lost in the field of wheat and the low price of oats. The farmer will have the best of it, and this year corn will be monarch of all the crops, not only in quantity but in quality.

THE OPENING.

The Season Started at the New Grand Opera House.

"Gilhooley's Troubles" opened the season at the Grand Saturday night and succeeded in pleasing a fair sized audience.

The play is Will E. Burton's favorite and J. P. Lester assumed the part of Gilhooley in the title role. Billy Hall caught the audience in the character of Herman Schmaltz and Joe Barnum as Col. Moses Vaps amused all. The songs were nearly all new and the singers of the ordinary variety. By taking out a few alleged jokes, avoiding allusions to persons in the audience and cutting a few songs the play would be improved. It is by no means the best of its class. The new orchestra rendered splendid music and was loudly applauded.

SPECIAL PRICES.

Madame Lyons Has a New Rate For Tonight and Tomorrow.

Madame Lyons, the recognized queen of clairvoyants, has inaugurated a special price tonight and tomorrow for the benefit of those who cannot pay the regular rate. Only 50 cents will be charged, and all people who are desirous of knowing the future, and seeing the wonderful work of this truly wonderful woman are invited to call at her room in the Hyatt House, corner Fourth and Market streets.

Wellsville Will Help.

East Liverpool church people are resolute in their determination to have the laws enforced against labor and merchandising on the Sabbath, and if their petition is disregarded by the mayor they will adopt some other method. It would be a very proper thing for Wellsville to join hand in hand with East Liverpool in this move, since the two places are so closely bound in their interests, although there is very little violation of the law in this place. However, any is too much.—Wellsville Union.

A Special Train.

Agent Adam Hill has succeeded in having the railroad company have a special train from this city to Louisville for the Grand Army encampment. It will leave the city at 5:30 on the morning of Sept. 9, and the passengers will arrive in Louisville at seven o'clock in the evening. There will be no change of cars and the whole route will be over Pennsylvania company lines by way of Cambridge and Columbus. About 30 people from this city will make the trip.

Almost a Collision.

Two young couples in carriages narrowly escaped a collision at Twelfth and Main street, Wellsville, yesterday. They were from this city and were on their way home. One carriage was driven into the side of the one in front without the couple noticing it and those who claim to have seen it say each driver had both arms employed and forgot about the horse.

A Hard Fall.

A small boy who wanted a ride on the street cars without paying the price attempted to board one of the new cars on Franklin avenue this morning. The step was so high that his foot missed, and he was dragged. He had sense enough to release his hold, but got a hard fall.

Council Will Meet.

The regular session of council will be held tomorrow evening but there is no business of special importance to come before the body. In fact affairs in the municipal line are wonderfully quiet at present.

Move the Mule.

An old mule, the one owned by a man named Giddard and which was treated by Doctor Wanamaker a short time ago, is reported to have died and been left at the Surles brick yard Saturday.

From the Campground.

H. A. Weeks is moving in from Spring Grove today and N. G. Macrum and George Ashbaugh will return home tomorrow. There will then be but three families left at the campground.

Poyser Much Better.

William Poyser has so far recovered from his wounds as to prompt the belief that he can be around in a few weeks. The cuts are healing, and he is gaining strength.

Postponed the Suit.

The suit of Douglas, Lamar & Co. against McGhie & Moore was postponed for 30 days because of the illness of John Moore.

—Mrs. A. J. L. Kerr left this morning for Pickaway as delegate to the convention of the Knights of the Golden Eagle.

WANTED—SECOND COOK, DISHWASHER and dining room girl at Hotel Grand.

PERSONAL MENTION.

—Mrs. J. D. West is visiting friends in Allegheny.

—Louis Steinfeld is home after a visit in New York.

—Miss Nell Martin is home from a visit to Connecticut, Pa.

—D. F. White, of East End, spent Sunday in Carroll county.

—John Dutton, of Canton, spent Sunday in the city with friends.

—Mrs. S. C. Williams left this morning for a trip to Jamestown, N. Y.

—Jack Harris, of Pittsburgh, is spending a few days with friends in this city.

—Miss Jennie Williams, of Salineville, is visiting in this city and Wellsville.

—John K. Johnson, of Bellaire, spent Sunday in the city the guest of friends.

—Mrs. T. W. Thompson, of Industry, has returned home after visiting in this city.

—Mrs. John T. Salmon left this morning for a week's visit with her sister in Beaver.

—Samuel Campbell, of Avondale street, left Saturday for a visit with relatives in Johnstown, Pa.

—Miss Alice Larkins, of Allegheny, who has been visiting her sister in this city, returned home today.

—Colonel Watson has returned from a western trip made in the interest of the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles company.

—Mrs. Joshua Curfman and Miss Celia Coleman delegates to the High Tent meeting of the Rechabites in Lonaconing, Md., are home from their trip. They were highly pleased with the work done by the order there and the progress the ladies branch is making.

The Pittsburgh Exposition 1895.

The Pittsburgh Exposition, opening this year, Wednesday, Sept. 4, and closing Saturday, Oct. 19, forty days and nights will unquestionably excel by far the attractions of all preceding years. A "grand change," as they say in the dance, is being made in the main and machinery buildings, and even the regulars, those who have been accustomed to view the exhibits many times in a season, will open their eyes in surprise.

The artistic improvements in design of dress fabrics, in headwear, in countless kinds of wear, will be seen in profusion array at the stands of the leading Pittsburgh merchants. The wonderful designs wrought in wood and glass, in iron, steel and aluminum, evincing the remarkable ingenuity of the age in inventions and manufacture, will entertain the many thousands who wander through the vast enclosures, not to mention the thousands of other products too numerous to single out in a brief article. Then the children, those little darlings, who so like to be whirled around through space, as well as look at pretty things, what is again in store for them? The dear old merry-go-round is still there, and will be moving there when the Exposition opens to give them delight. The grand new switch-back railway, 500 feet in length, with enough exhilarating ups and downs in it to charm a bird, six splendid hacks with six handsome cars accommodating ten passengers each, or sixty in all. This brand new out of door attraction will be immensely popular and will be a distinct novelty of the great Exposition.

Then the art gallery for the lovers of art. The features this year, it is promised, will eclipse any yet displayed in the history of the Exposition, and it is well known the quality of the paintings displayed in past years were of the highest merit. Paintings by the world famed artists of Europe will be on exhibition for the first time in this country. These alone will be worth many times the admission.

But music, that great attraction of all attractions, what a treat there is in store! One great band would suffice to bring the thousands, but when such a grand organization as Gilmore's band, under the direction of the great Gilmore successor, Victor Herbert, opens the great affair, and after playing several weeks, is followed by Contorno's 9th Regiment Band of Brooklyn and the only James, it would seem that enough has been said to predict that the Pittsburgh Exposition of '95 will be a grand and glowing success.

For months a large number of men have been employed in repairing and cleaning the buildings, beautifying the grounds and getting everything in readiness for the opening, which will be an event in the history of Pittsburgh.

The interior of the buildings will be beautifully decorated at an enormous expense. In fact, the management has spent money lavishly for the entertainment of visitors, and unless all signs fail, this year's Exposition will be the greatest in point of merit, attendance and entertainment since the foundation of the enterprise.

Special features each day, such as Flower Shows, Billiard Contests between World-Famed Billiardists, Ives, Shaffer, etc., Bicycle Contests, Illuminations, etc., etc., will be a pleasing departure.

The railroads will do everything in their power to give persons within 150 miles of Pittsburgh an opportunity to visit this biggest of big shows, and will make liberal reductions in their rates. A failure to visit the Pittsburgh Exposition this year will be an everlasting regret.

Western Pioneer Dead.

OMAHA, Aug. 26.—Henry Pundt, the Omaha pioneer who went to Europe recently to consult eminent physicians as to his health, has died at Berlin. Mr. Pundt was the first man to open a mercantile house in the territory of Nebraska, beginning in Omaha in July, 1850. He was very wealthy and a prominent citizen.

CHINA HAS YIELDED.

Foreigners Now Allowed to Be Present at the

INQUIRY OF MISSIONARY ATTACKS.

New Arrests Being Made Daily—Liu Ping Chang and His Officers to Be Degraded and Dismissed From Office—Six Rioters Convicted.

Foo-Chow, China, Aug. 26.—Firmness has brought the Chinese to terms, and foreigners are now present at the trials of natives implicated in the attacks upon missionaries. The Chinese officials afford every facility to the foreign commissioners of inquiry. Six of the Chinese who had a hand in the massacre at Hwasang have been convicted of murder and new arrests are made daily. Foo-Chow is quiet. What was reported abroad as a new massacre was only a local riot.

News from Shanghai is to the effect that ex-Viceroy Liu Ping Chang, his secretary, two prefects and several minor officials will be degraded and dismissed from office.

The status of the missionaries will be recognized by the government and the missions will be rebuilt at the expense of Liu Ping Chang, who is also condemned to pay the missionaries an indemnity. The natives convicted will be executed.

The French claims for indemnity for outrages on the French missionaries at Szechuen have been settled. These attacks occurring some time ago in the Province of Szechuen are also blamed upon the Vegetarians, whose murders have reflected so much on the Chinese government.

A special from Tokio, Japan, says: The massacre of missionaries at Ku-Cheng was a natural development of a conspiracy organized by well-known viceroy against foreign residents. The results were the outrages in Sze Chuan province, instigated by the deposed viceroy, Liu Ping Chang.

The guilt of this official has been formally declared by his successor, the Viceroy Ly Chang Ian, who ordered that the originator of the riots be required to remain in Cheng-Tu and make reparation for his evil deeds. This proposition has been approved by the court at Peking, and an imperial edict has been issued commanding Liu Ping to settle the affair in accordance with the judgment soon to be pronounced by the investigating commission.

Grave doubts, however, are expressed by foreign officials in China with regard to the central government's ability to enforce penalties upon high provincial authorities, even assuming that the penalties will be ordered in good faith.

A POWERFUL CLAIRVOYANT.

Prof. Earl Byron, the Greatest Life Reader of the Age, and the Most Learned Man in Occult Science Now in This Country, is at Mrs. Dailey's Residence, 267 West Market Street.

Where he will receive callers for a few days. Be it understood here, that the professor is not an impostor, but a man truly gifted with the power to cast the search light of truth and understanding on events which lie hidden in the mystic future. He is not here to dupe the public, nor to win cheap laurels as a clever fortune teller, but he is here to work—For the cause that needs assistance, For the wrongs that need resistance, For the future in the distance. And the good that he can do.

Earl Byron has for nine years, stood before the tribunal of that exacting merciless judge, "public opinion," and has been weighed in the balance, and found not wanting. Life is a stern reality and very enigmatical, but through the understanding of its strange philosophy, comes success, happiness and prosperity.

A visit to Professor Byron may be the means of saving you many a dollar, many a mistake, many a sigh, and the saddest of all sad words, "it might have been." If your domestic happiness is marred there must be a reason for it, and also a remedy. If you are unsuccessful in business, remember the error is yours, and it is your duty to correct it. Young men and women starting in life should not fail to get the professor's advice, and bear in mind the motto, "Be sure you are right, and then go ahead." He can tell your name, age, occupation, etc., at a single glance. Lost, hidden or stolen property recovered and no money taken until it is in the owner's hands. He can tell you how you can win the love or friendship of any man or woman upon whom you set your heart. He gives the name, age, occupation, nationality, disposition and financial standing of your future husband or wife and date of marriage. He advises on law, love, business, marriage, divorce and all affairs of life with a higher than human power. Do not wait until he is gone, but come now while you have an opportunity to see him. Remember he guarantees satisfaction to all or no money taken. Your future to this gifted young man is as an open book. He tells you your trouble; how it came about, and the way out of it. He tells just for what you came to him, and advises accordingly without you speaking a word concerning the purpose of your visit.
